P R E F A C E

At the earnest solicitation of friends of the Moyer Family we were prevailed upon to compile a second Genealogy of the Moyer Family. It was at first intended to revise the first edition of the Moyer Family published in 18 , and add other branches that had not heretofore been published. However, it was found impracticable to revise the first work, and hence the present work is confined to several new branches of the Meyer, Mayer and Moyer families that early settled in Berks and Lancaster counties, Pennsylvania.

We have made it our most earnest endeavor to make the work as complete as possible. In some instances, however, the records are incomplete, owing to the lack of interest manifested by some of the descendants in the work, who failed to respond to communications asking for information.

We acknowledge ourselves greatly indebted to many of the friends who manifested a lively interest in the work, for their kindness in furnishing data for same, and while we express our sincere gratitude to all who in any way aided us, we especially acknowledge our indebtedness to those who have very materially aided us. To Major H. P. Moyer, of Lebanon, Pa., belongs the credit of being the prime mover in securing the completion of this work. He also furnished much data, and otherwise very liberally aided the work. Prominent among others who gave us much assistance in furnishing data are the following: Mrs. Mary A. Eschelman, Reading, Pa.; Nevin W. Moyer, Lingelstown, Pa.; Miss Elizabeth

S. Fryberger, Philipsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Emma Linc, Carlisle, Pa.; Henry Meyer, Rebersburg, Pa; Miss Sue Boyer, Gratz, Pa; Isaac S. Meyers, Hendley, Neb; Edward E. Haller, Forreston, Ill; and others.

THE MOYER FAMILY

The Meyer and Mayer family have evidently been very numerous in Germany and Switzerland, judging from the great numbers of the names that have emigrated to this country from its earliest settlement by Europeans to the present time. It is quite evident too, that Pennsylvania received more Meyer and Mayer emigrants than any other state, but the family have drifted in large numbers into every state of the Union from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast and Canada. The name has been and still is variously spelled, viz., Mayer, Meyer, Meyers, Meier, Mire, Miere, Myers and Moyer. The name Moyer is evidently a new form, first occurring in the United States at an early date, or prior to 1720. Among the emigrant ship lists on file at Harrisburg, Pa., the name is never found written Moyer, but most frequently Meyer. In old deeds and other papers signed 100 or 150 years ago, the name was always written Meyer or Mayer. The original spelling of the name in the old country therefore seems evidently to have been Meyer and Mayer. In Switzerland the principal vocation of the Meyer family in the mountain fastnesses was that of graziers, as the name is said to imply.

CHRISTIAN MEYER OF LOWER SALFORD,
MONTGOMERY CO., PA. .

I. Christian Meyer, progenitor of a family numerously represented in Montgomery, Bucks, and adjacent counties in Pennsylvania, throughout the western states and Canada, settled in Lower Salford Twp., Montgomery Co., Pa.

Tradition points to Switzerland as the fatherland, where the Mennonites, to which sect he belonged, were unmercifully persecuted by the State church, which he, with others, unable longer to endure, abandoned their homes in the mountain fastnesses and fled for safety to the Netherlands. From thence, about 1700 or later, Christian Meyer, of Amsterdam, sailed for Pennsylvania, and located at the Indian Creek, Montg. Co., Pa., where he had purchased a farm containing 150 acres, sometime prior to 1719, and for which he received a patent from the Hon. John Penn, Thomas Penn and Richard Penn, Sept. 6, 1734.

There has been preserved a description of a cabin erected by him, and which probably was the first Meyer domicile in the Western world, and consisted of four forked saplings driven into the ground, in the forks of which were laid poles, and on these a roof of poles, and the walls were of upright poles. A single opening served for an entrance, and the whole was built with an axe. An article of furniture which adorned this primitive house was a large Dutch clock, brought from the Old World, a much treasured relic of the late Tillman W. Moyer, of Campden, Ont., Canada.

Christian Meyer made his Will Jan. 18, 1748. It was probated June 6, 1751, which shows he died in the early part of 1751. His wife Barbara died be-Christian Meyer, Jr., was a very prominent Mennonite, and stood front in the church. He was one of the founders of the Mennonite church of Salford in 1738, being at that time one of the Deacons. He was later chosen to the ministry, and served at Franconia. C., Christian, Rev. Jacob, Esther, Rev. Samuel, Anna,* Maria, Esther, Barbara.

VI. Henry G. Moyer, b in Bucks Co., Pa., Aug. 28, 1848, m Emeline Seiple. P. O. Perkasio, Pa. He was raised on his father's farm, and began fitting himself for future duties by attending the common schools of his district. This educational experience was supplemented by availing himself of the opportunities afforded by higher schools of learning, winding up his schooling by taking in the Quaker City Business College, from which he graduated with honors when 20 years old. In 1879 when Perkasio became a borough, he was elected Justice of the Peace, which position he filled for three terms of five years each. During that time he had an extensive connection with the settlement of estates and other business in Bucks Co. In 1882 he purchased half interest of the "Central News," a local paper published at Perkasio, with Mahlon Sellers & Co., and became one of the editors of the paper. Mr. Sellers dying soon after, S. R. Kramer purchased his interest, and the "Central News" was conducted under the firm name of Moyer & Kramer. Mr. Moyer is an ardent Republican in his county, having been prominently identified with the local organization; and having attended several Republican State conventions as a delegate. In 1882 he was nominated by his party as a candidate for the House of Representatives from his County, and, although failing of election, received a large complimentary vote from the opposite party in the district in which he was personally known. In 1894 his party again nominated him for the State Senate, when he was elected by a majority of 1577 votes in a county which the year before elected a solid Democratic delegation to the House. Session of 1895 Mr. Moyer was chairman of Public Buildings, also served on the committees on appropriations, Finance, Insurance, Mines and Mining, and Retrenchment and Reform. Mr. Moyer had no difficulty in adapting himself to the duties of his position as a Senator, and served with credit to himself and the State. In 1895 at the forming of the "Moyer Family Reunion Association" he was elected President of the Association, and has served as its President up to the present time. Evan' Ass'n. C., VII. DAUGHTER OF CHRISTIAN MEYER.

II. Barbara Meyer, d about 1773, m Abraham Reiff.* He d about 1763. The name of Abraham Reiff appears in the tax list of 1734, when he was rated on 200 acres of land. He came to Franconia in 1719, and for 10 years had only a lease for his land, which was dated Dec. 24, 1719, for 212 acres, with allowances of 6 per cent for roads. A conveyance was granted by Steel and wife Sept. 14, 1729. The tract includes the farms of Simeon Moyer, Jonas L. Moyer, and Tyson Detweiler. Abraham Reiff lived on this plantation 27 years. On April 17, 1746, they conveyed their whole plantation to Jacob Detweiler of Bedminster, Bucks Co. Abraham Reiff lived in Lower Salford some time afterward, but about 1763 he moved to North Coventry, Chester Co., and died there the same year. His will was dated July 20, 1763, proven Dec. 7, 1763. He was one of the founders of the Lower Salford Mennonite church and was a Deacon. C., Isaac, Christian, Abraham, France, Anna, Barbara, Elizabeth.

His wife died in 1741, and was buried in Lower Salford Mennonite grave yard. He died soon after selling his farm, and was buried beside his wife. He was a Mennonite. The names of all his children are not known. Seven or eight graves in a row are supposed to be of his family.

V. Mary Brower, b Nov. 1, 1788, d May 13, 1852, m Abraham Beitler, about 1810. He was b Mar. 6, 1785, d June 23, 1866. He settled on a farm near Pughtown, Chester Co. In 1825 the farm was sold, and he became landlord of the Black Bear Hotel at Paoli. He removed from there about 1830, to the hotel and quarries at Howellville, Chester Valley. It was here while superintending blasting that owing to a premature explosion, a rock fell upon him and crushed his right leg below the knee, resulting in its amputation. He used an artificial limb and was known as the "man with the wooden leg." About 1836 he moved to Philadelphia and became landlord of the Western Market Inn, on Market street. This stand was widely and favorably known to the farmers and market men of the adjacent counties, who were accustomed to put up at "Beitlers" on their weekly trips to market. He continued in this business until a few years before his death, when he was succeeded by his son Daniel. He was a man of large physical proportions, being over six feet in height, and of large frame and weight in proportion. Adherants of Mennonite church, and buried in Diamond Rock Mennonite burying ground near Howellville. C., Lewis, Daniel, Hannah, Frances, Nathan, Sarah, Joseph, David, John.

VI. Lewis Beitler, b Mar. 4, 1812, d Sept. 11, 1815.

VI. Daniel Brower Beitler, b in Chester Co., Pa., May 31, 1814, d Apr. 24, 1881, m Mary Ann Eliza Merkle, Oct. 7, 1852. She was b in Phila., Pa., June 18, 1820, d there Sept. 12, 1867. Daniel B. Beitler received a common school education. His father's family was a large one and he was compelled to assist his father in maintaining the family. While yet a boy he drove a six-horse team across the mountains to Pittsburgh. After locating in Philadelphia he engaged in the feed business and then in the livery stable business. In 1860 he had three large stables. He sold out his stables to take charge of the hotel his father had conducted for years. This was the New Market Inn on Market street, which he continued to run until the time of his death. It was frequented by the farmers of Chester, Montgomery, Bucks and Delaware counties. During the meeting of Friends its capacity was taxed to the utmost, the inn being the headquarters of the Friends from the rural sections.

Early in life Daniel B. Beitler took a deep interest in politics. He was an ardent Republican. He was too old and not physically able to take part in the war of the Rebellion, but as a member of the Union League he gave valuable assistance in recruiting and equipping the various regiments sent to the front by it. Daniel B. Beitler was ever ready to assist the soldier boys, and many a large pot of coffee and many a ham and hundreds of loaves of bread found their way from his kitchen to the rendezvous of recruits in the neighborhood.

On June 1, 1861, he was appointed by President Lincoln an inspector in the Custom Service and he filled this position until the time of his death, except during President Johnson's term.

He was a delegate to the National Republican convention which placed Gen. Garfield in nomination. He was for several terms a member of the Republican State Com., and for many years chairman of the Ninth Ward Republican executive committee. He had never accumulated a fortune, but he left his children the record of a blameless life and no man ever speaks of Daniel B. Beitler but in words of praise. His heart was tender, he was the friend of the needy and oppressed, he strove to do his duty as a father, a husband, a friend, a neighbor, a citizen. Meth. Ep. C., Abraham, Amanda, William, Elsie, VII. Hon. Abraham M. Beitler, b in Phila., Pa., July 3, 1853, m Julia L. Borneman, Oct. 16, 1879. Res.

Judge Beitler graduated from the Central High School of Philadelphia July, 1870, and entered the law office of C. Stewart Patterson. He was admitted to the bar Jan., 1875. In 1875 he was appointed an assistant to the City Solicitor. He continued in the law department of the City of Philadelphia, advancing by gradual promotions until 1888, he reached the position of first assistant to the then City Solicitor Charles F. Warwick. He took part in many of the most important cases involving the city's interest during the many years he served as the city's counsel. On Oct. 1, 1891, he accepted of Mayor Edwin S. Stewart the position of Director of the Department of Public Safety, and he ably and acceptably filled this place until appointed by Governor Hastings in Feb., 1896, to the vacancy in the Court of Common Pleas No 1, caused by the death of Judge Allison. In the following summer he was unanimously nominated for the full term of ten years by both the Democratic and Republican conventions and received every vote cast, official count showing that he had received 228,311 votes more than were cast for any of his colleagues on the ticket, and more than were ever given in any election in Philadelphia to any candidate. In Nov., 1906, he was elected for a term of ten years beginning Jan., 1907. He took the oath for the new term and served until February, when he resigned to enter the Law firm of Dickson, Beitler & McCouch, of 750 Bullitt Building, Phila., Pa. Prot. Ep. C., Harold, Elsie.

VII. Abram Beitler Garner, b in Chester Co., Pa., Jan. 18, 1838, d in Newark, N. J., Jan. 28, 1909, m Jannetta Clark England, Nov. 11, 1871. She d Oct. 7, 1909.

Major Garner graduated from the Phila. High School in 1858, and soon after engaged in the dry goods commission business in that city. In 1862 he enlisted in the 15th Regt., Pa. Vol. Cav., and served until the close of the war in the department of the Cumberland and the military division of the Mississippi under Gen.'s Rosencrans, Thomas, Grant and Sherman. The fact that he was successively promoted to the offices of first sergeant, captain and major of his regiment is sufficient testimony as to the quality of his service to his Country. After the close of the war he was for some two years engaged in commercial analysis and metallurgy in Philadelphia, and in 1867 went to South America in connection with gold mining operations of Venezuela and Guiana. In 1869 he returned to the United States, and in the following year entered the railway service in the construction of the Kansas Pacific Railway from Carsou to Denver, Colo. In 1875 he was appointed general superintendent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway at Sedalia, Mo. In 1880 he became purchasing agent of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway at Denver, retaining this position until Jan., 1884, when he was offered and accepted a position with Murphy & Co., varnish makers.

In Oct., 1897, Major Garner was elected president of the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, and was one of the most highly respected and popular gentlemen connected with the association. He was also a member of the New York Commandery Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Baptists. No issue.

VII. Henry Garner, b in Chester Co., Pa., June 7, 1837. He was educated in Public Schools of Phila. He entered mercantile life in 1852, and held various positions until 1860, when he became agent for a manufacturing firm in Philadelphia. In Nov., 1860, he traveled westward and southward on business until he reached New Orleans, where he was in business when the war of the Rebellion broke out in 1861. He continued there in business until by force of circumstances he (a staunch union man, and Republican, having cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln,) was compelled to enlist in the Louisiana State militia for three months. At the end of their enlistment the militiamen were transferred, "nolens volens" into the regular Confederate army and pushed to the front in time to participate in the battle of Corinth. After this battle he was changed to the trans Mississippi department and to the artillery service, where he took part in all the battles of the famous Red River and other campaigns under the rebel Gen. Zachary Taylor. At the close of the war, tho much broken in health, he resumed business in New Orleans, but in 1868 was compelled by severe hemorrhages to quit business and hasten north. He became associated with his father in the wagon business and continued until 1876, when with broken health he was ordered by his physician to Florida, where in a few weeks on March 14, he died. His remains were brought home for burial. Baptist. S.

VII. Rev. Harrison Brower Garner, b in Chester Co., Pa., Sept. 16, 1840. He received his early education in the public schools of Philadelphia. In his 13th year, Mar. 4, 1853, he entered the dry goods establishment of L. J. Levy & Co., at that time the largest and most fashionable store in the city. In 1858 he was converted and united with the Baptist church. In the fall of 1859 he went to Lewisburg, Pa., to enter upon a course of study preparatory to entering the ministry.

He was graduated in 1865, from the University at Lewisburg, now the Bucknell University, and received the degree of "A. B." In 1867 he completed a course in theology at the same institution, and also received the degree of "A. M." from the college. During his course of studies during the Civil war, he responded twice to the call of the President for emergency troops, and enlisted first in Sept., 1862, in a regiment of militia raised in Philadelphia for service in the Antietam campaign, guarding Dupont's powder mill at Wilmington, Del., until after the battle, when the regiment was disbanded. Again in June, 1863, at the call of the President for troops during the Gettysburg campaign, in company with the students at Lewisburg, who volunteered as a body and were organized into Co. A, 28th Regt., Pennsylvania militia, and were duly sworn into the United States service during the emergency. He received an honorable discharge, dated July 27, 1863. Aug. 2, 1864, he was appointed delegate of the United States Christian commission and was sent to the hospitals at Fort Monroe and City Point, Va., where for six weeks he did duty ministering to the sick and wounded soldiers. In Sept., 1867, he was ordained to the gospel ministry and became pastor of the First Baptist church of Honesdale, Pa. On Sept. 1, 1871, he resigned the pastorate of the church and entered upon missionary work in the county for the Wayne Baptist Association. Later he became associated with the firm of Smith, English & Co., Theological book publishers, at 710 Arch St., Philadelphia. Aug. 1, 1878, he accepted a call to the Calvary Baptist church of Hopewell, N. J. In Sept., 1882, he resigned the pastorate to assume charge of the theological publishing and book business at 710 Arch St., Phila. November, 1886, he was called to the pastorate of the Great Valley Baptist church, Chester Co., Pa., and served the church until Apr. 1, 1893. On Oct. 1, 1893, he became identified with the mission enterprise of the Memorial (now Bethlehem) Baptist church of Phila. until Dec. 1, 1895, when he was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church, Downingtown, Pa. Apr. 1, 1900, he retired from the pastorate, and was field secretary of the society for providing religious literature for the blind. He resigned this connection Apr. 1, 1902, and became pastor of the Cold Point Baptist church of Montg. Co., Pa., and has since then served other pastorates. He was m to Annie L. Evans, of Bucks Co., Pa., March 12, 1868. Res. Norristown, Pa. C., Mary, Henry, Rowland, Albert.

David Beitler was a man of fine physique, of very pleasant manners and of more than ordinary capacity. On the fourth of May, 1858, he was elected an alderman in the Ninth Ward, Philadelphia. The next month he was appointed committing magistrate at the Central station by Mayor Henry. He was continued in that position until 1869. Mayor Fox, a Democrat, came into office, and Mr. Beitler refused to serve under a Democratic mayor. In 1872 William S. Stockley, a Republican, was elected Mayor, and he at once reappointed Alderman Beitler, who was known as one of the best committing magistrates Philadelphia ever had. He served under every Republican Mayor from the time of his election as alderman in 1858, until his death. His judgment was so good and his knowledge of the law so much respected and valued that the leading lawyers in the City took to his court their important cases. He was as a father kind and indulgent, as a friend steadfast, generous and true, and as an official fearless, intelligent and upright. He died beloved by his family and friends and respected by all who knew him. Prot. Ep. C., John, David, Mary.

Until his 15th year he passed his time on his father's farm, having attended the High School of the town near by. At the age of 16 he began teaching. Later he attended Mifflinburg Academy during the summer and taught in the winter. Later he attended Union Seminary, a Methodist institution. He served as Principal and Superintendent of City Schools for 13 years. In 1884 he became President of Mount Morris College, and continued in that position until 1904. Jan. 11, 1904, Prof. Royer completed his fiftieth year as a teacher, and the June following he dropped school work. He was ordained to the ministry of the Brethren Ch., March, 1872, and in the ministry, in the Sunday School, in conference and in soul winning his efforts have been blessed with a commendable measure of success. Scores of faithful workers received their first impression to help others under his instruction in the class room and hundreds of others gleaned sentiments and sayings from his morning chapel talks that will be prized by them as precious gems to the end of life. C., Galen, Susan, Mary, Ida, Nettie, Lillie, Josephine, Myrtle.

VII. Galen Brown Royer, b in Union Co., Pa., Sept. 8, 1862, m Anna M. Miller, Mar. 5, 1885. She was b near Hagerstown, Md., May 21, 1863. Res. Elgin, Ill. He was ordained to the ministry of the Brethren Ch., Mar. 8, 1889, and is now a bishop in the church. As General Secretary for the General Mission Board for the last 20 years, and treasurer for the last 10, he naturally has directed much of his labor along missionary lines. His tours among the church schools and visits to churches have largely been along that line. Earlier in his ministry he did considerable evangelistic work. In 1907, he, in company with Elder Chas. D. Bonsack of Maryland, visited the Mission churches in Denmark, Sweden, France and Switzerland, and then made a hurried trip through Italy and home. C., Elixabeth, Daniel, Katharen, Neta, Anna, John.

She moved with her parents on a farm near Monticello, Ind., at which place she attended High School. She then went with her brother, Galen, to Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa. After the family moved to Mt. Morris, Ill., she graduated in the Commercial Course of Mt. Morris College and almost completed the Literary Course.

christian parents. After farming a few years he decided to enter Mt. Union College and prepare to teach school. After attending the College two terms he taught a district school four years near Canton. He then entered Mt. Morris College, Ill., completing his course in two years. The following year he entered the Theological School, Lexington University, at Lexington, Ky. In 1885 he was appointed Dean of the Bible Department of Mt. Morris College. Feeling the need of more preparation for the work he had undertaken, he decided to finish his Course at the Chicago University, but before doing so he spent one year at Yale University, New Haven, Conn., in Post Graduate work. Returned to Chicago, he completed his course in the University under Dr. W. R. Harper and took the degree of B. D. In 1891 he organized and taught the first Bible Institute which is now so prevalent in the church of the Brethren. In 1895 he severed his connection with Mt. Morris College and was chosen President of Manchester College, North Manchester, Ind. In 1899 the family moved to Chicago, near the University, and arranged to do Bible Institute work and Revival work. He enlarged the Bible Correspondence Course which is still being carried on with very successful results. He is the author of five books on Bible study: - Bible Outline, Bible Geography, Old Testament History, New Testament History and Life of Christ. In 1901 the family moved to Canton, O., and he erected a good building in which he carried forward for three years a good College and Bible school. At present their entire efforts are given to the work of Bible Study by mail. JOHN MAYER, OF BERKS CO., PA.

I. John Mayer, b about 1770, d, m Maria Kehley.

In a well preserved family Bible now in the possession of the family of the youngest daughter, Lydia Smith, nee Moyer, of David Moyer, appears the following bequest, under date of June 1, 1749: "I hereby bequeath to my youngest daughter Sara this Bible." Signed, Samuel Hoch.

Major H. P. Moyer

This Bible contains the following record: "John Mayor and wife Maria, nee Kehley, had a son born to them Jan. 4, 1793, whom they named David." A baptismal record of this son is witnessed by David Mayor and Magdalena Miller.

Another record in the same Bible shows that John Kergner and his wife Margarete, nee Noll, had a daughter born to them in 1795, whom they named Catharine. The witnesses to the baptismal record are Peter Noll and his wife Catharine, grandparents, all of Alsace Twp., Berks Co., Pa.

Just how this Bible found its way into the Moyer family and has been handed down from one generation to another as a rare relic, perhaps may never be fully explained, but the facts as to names, dates, and location substantially indicate beyond a reasonable doubt that there must have been a close connection between the Hoch and Moyer families and that John Mayer and his wife Maria, nee Kehley, were the parents of David Moyer, and Catharine, nee Kergner, was the wife of David Moyer. They lived during their earlier lifetime in Alsace Twp., but in later years in Cumru and Breakneck Twps., Berks Co., Pa.

The difference in the names Mayer and Moyer, is evidently due to a changed translation from the German to the English, which frequently appears in these names. Ref. C., David, John.

JOHN MAYER, SR.

II. David Moyer, b in Cumru Twp., Berks Co., Pa., Jan. 4, 1793, m Catherine, daughter of John and Margaret (Nole) Kergner. She was born in 1795.

*Whatever of pleasure there is in rendering tribute to the dead, we feel it a great privilege to be permitted, as a kin, to place on record a few memorials, as they impress me, reflecting the character of David Moyer, whom it was my privilege to know for a short time only. He was not regarded as a great scholar, nor was he an orator. He did not possess great wealth. He was not a statesman nor a politician. But he had something that was worth more than all these. He was a good man. Nothing better can be said of any man. Although a humble shoemaker by trade, he applied himself as assiduously to that profession as any person of a loftier profession could do. His word and honor was his principal stock in trade. He was true to his friends and firm in his convictions. Nothing could tempt him to do a thing which his conscience condemned. Nowhere was his sense of high honor and lofty ideals better exemplified than in his devotion to and concern for his own family. His unpretentious manner and straightforwardness won for him the highest admiration of those who knew him best. He was an affectionate father, true friend, kind neighbor, a progressive and patriotic citizen, and a patient sufferer in his protracted illness. He died in the city of Reading, Pa., Sept. 11, 1872, aged 79 years. C., Adam, Matilda,

III. Rev. David Moyer, b in Cumru Twp., Berks Co., Pa., Dec. 12, 1824, d in 1868, m Mary Pefley. Both parents were of German extraction. Early in life Rev. David Moyer evidenced a strong desire along educational lines, but as his parents could not give him the needed financial assistance for collegiate training he was apprenticed to learn the shoe-making trade. He located in the vicinity of Sinking Spring, Berks Co., Pa., as a shoe-maker. Here he became identified with the United Brethren church and soon became a recognized leader in religious affairs, principally as a revivalist in the United Brethren church. He now had an intense desire to devote all his time and best efforts to religious work, but keenly felt the need of better educational qualifications. He secured such books and helps as were recommended to him by friends who took a deep interest in him, and single handed and alone he applied himself as closely as circumstances would permit to qualify himself for the ministry to which he felt sure God had called him. While engaged in making and mending shoes, he was frequently seen with open books before him, thus using every opportunity to secure the desired and much needed education. In 1852 he received license from the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren in Christ to preach and in 1855 the same conference assigned him to the Myerstown circuit, in Lebanon Co., Pa. So marked was his success in this first appointment that the conference returned him for the third time to this same charge, which was in those days an unusual occurrence, a rare compliment and the highest proof of his popularity and success. He afterwards served with equal success appointments at Shaefferstown, Jonostown, Lickdale, Fredericksburg and Heilmandale in Lebanon Co., Freeburg and McKee's Half Falls in Snyder Co., and Berrysburg, Lykenstown, Elizabethville, Grantville, Progress and Lingelstown in Dauphin Co. He was also one of the promoters of the Lebanon Valley College, one of the leading educational institutions of the United Brethren church. He was not only an eloquent and forceful preacher, but he was also a lover of good music and himself an exceptionally good singer. Knowing that to be one of his strong fortes, he carefully studied the art of vocal music and in his religious services invariably led the singing. The manner in which he conducted the singing of a religious service would charm an audience as much as his preaching. He possessed those sterling traits of character that are sure to win success in almost any undertaking in life. He had lofty ideals and his well-directed efforts and high moral character commanded the highest esteem and respect. Without wealth or family prestige he attained distinction by his own efforts.

He made many friends and accomplished much good in his short life time. He was a patriotic citizen and most loyal to his church. His demise occurred while serving the Heilmandale circuit in Lebanon Co., Pa., in the 43rd year of his age. He was survived by his wife Mary, a devoted Christian who proved a most valuable helpmate to him in his religious work, and five sons and three daughters. IV. Major Harry P. Moyer, bat Sinking Spring, Berks Co., Pa., Aug. 28, 1844, m Mary A., dau. of John Baumgardner, of Dauphin Co., May 9, 1867. P. O. Lebanon, Pa. Banker. United Br.

After the family was located at Myerstown, Major Moyer attended the public school there and later the Myerstown Academy, and was still a student at the outbreak of the Civil war. In August 1862, he enlisted for nine months in Company E, 127th Penn. Vol., but preferring the Cavalry service, he severed his connection with 127th Regiment, and on Sept. 1, 1862, re-enlisted, entering Company E, 17th Pa. Vol. Cavalry, for 3 years, in which he gallantly served his country until the close of the war.

His service, which extended from Sept. 1, 1862, to June 16, 1865, included 1,015 days, during which time he was never absent from his command, bravely bore his part in every engagement in which his company took part, a long and thrilling list; Chancellorsville, Beverly Ford, Aldie, Upperville, Gettysburg, Williamsport, Beaver Creek, Boonsboro, Falling Waters, Brandy Station, Raccoon's Ford, Barnett's Ford, Martins's Ford, Stephensburg, Rappahannock Station, Oak Hill, Thoroughfare Gap, Bealton's Station, Mine Run, Kilpatrick's Raid to Richmond, Todd's Tavern, Yellow Tavern, Meadow Bridge, Hanover Farm, Old Church, Cold Harbor, Trevillian Station, White House, White Post, Cedarville, Berryville, Kearneysville, Leetown, Smithfield Winchester, Fisher's Hill, Cedar Creek, Luray, Gordonville, Sheridan's Raid to the James River, Stony Creek, Dinwiddie Court House, Five Forks, Scott's Cross Roads, Drummond's mill, Sailor's Creek, Appomatox Station, Appomatox Court House, and many other skirmishes in which comrades fell. While serving in the Shenandoah Valley Mr. Moyer was captured by the Confederate Guerrilla Mosby, but was re-captured by the Union forces on the same day. Among the souvenirs which grace the walls of Major Moyer's library in his home is the official record of the 17th Pa. Vol. Cavalry, giving names and dates of 92 engagements in which the regiment participated. A brave soldier, he has retained a taste for military affairs, and on July 25, 1885, became a member of the Pennsylvania National Guard, and was appointed sergeant major of the Third Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, and on June 28, 1887, was appointed quartermaster of the Third Brigade with the rank of major, by commanding officer Gen. J. P. S. Gobin, being re-appointed June 26, 1890, and again re-appointed June 26, 1895. Major Moyer was with his brigade when it was called upon to suppress the Homestead riots, and also at the time its services were required in the coal regions of Hazleton. The post of duty has always been the place of his choice, and he is highly appreciated by his comrades, both in war and in peace.

After his return from the Civil war Mr. Moyer entered Lebanon Valley college, from which he graduated in 1868. This was followed by several years of successful teaching in the public schools.

In 1870 he removed to Lebanon Co., and entered the employ of John H. Shugar, wholesale and retail grocer, with whom he remained five years, and then accepted a position as chief clerk in the United Brethren Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania, a prominent life insurance company located at Lebanon. In 1890 he was elected a director in the institution, and served in the capacity of superintendent of agents, and also as treasurer of the company, until 1894, when he resigned. In 1892 Major Moyer became the prime factor and promoter in the organization of the Farmers National Bank of Lebanon, and was elected cashier, a position he has acceptably filled ever since. His business ability has also been recognized by other business organizations, and he is a director and the treasurer of the Lebanon Valley Saving & Loan Association of Lebanon; treasurer and director of the Safety Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Lebanon; treasurer and director of the Central Market House Co.; director in the West End Rolling Mill; and president of the Lebanon Board of Trade.

Major Moyer has been active in politics, and served the City of Lebanon as clerk five years, and for the same number of years as City treasurer. For four years he served in the Select Council, and was on the school board for three years; in all these offices giving close and careful attention to the various demands of each. Aside from business he has found time to actively support the United Brethren church, and serve as Sunday School superintendent, and also to look into charitable and benevolent enterprises. His social faculties also have not been neglected, his membership in Sedgwick Post No. 42, Grand Army of the Republic, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and other fraternal associations, giving him a large circle of congenial associates. He is respected and honored as a public spirited and successful business man, brave and fearless soldier, and an estimable and representative private citizen. His two accomplished daughters are:

*HENRY MEYER, OF MIHLBACH,
LANCASTER COUNTY, PA.

I. Henry Meyer d prior to 1786. He came from a place called Miihlbach in the Palitinate Prussia about 1719. But little is known of him either in this country or the fatherland. He settled permanently at the beautiful spring or source of the small stream known by the name of Miihlbach, (Mill Creek), Lancaster Co., Pa., but now in the south-eastern part of Lebanon Co. There was a small cabin quite close to the spring, which no doubt was the humble dwelling of the pioneer. It was moved down the run in 1858, and enlarged, and is still there (1883). The ancestors were married in the old country. On emigrating to America, they landed at New York, where they served to pay part of their passage over, after which they came to Philadelphia, from whence they travelled on foot through the country, looking for a place to settle. They finally arrived at the spring in the forest, which seemed to have a strong attraction for the pioneer, and he said, "Here we will stay." It is a tradition of the family that the wife of the pioneer prostrated herself on the ground in grief and tears as she and her husband tarried here under a tree after their long and weary wandering, seeking a home in the wild forests of a strange country, as she realized their sad condition, of no house to shelter them and their childreu, no furniture, but little food, nothing but forests wherever they turned their eyes, and perhaps hostile Indians even then prowling around near them.

*It is not absolutely certain that his name was Henry, but almost certain that it was.

Hiram T. Fisher

Their little belongings, consisting of an axe and a few other articles were unloaded under a large oak tree, and the pioneer named the stream "Miilbach", after the name of his native home in the old country. Among old papers of the Miilbach homestead is a draft of $346\frac{3}{4}$ acres of land taken up by Henry Meyer, Sept. 29, 1738. Christopher and his brother Michael purchased a tract of 700 acres near Campbellstown, Lebanon Co., Pa. Later Christopher bought his brother Michael's interest in the property. The land proved to be of the best, and the tract was subsequently divided into five or six farms and apportioned to Christopher's sons. Christopher put up substantial stone buildings on his farm.

The descendants of Christopher Meyer were many of them instructors in both vocal and instrumental music, and some of them leaders of choirs in churches. One, Frederick C., was the founder and director of the Musical College at Freeburg, an institution which has achieved merited popularity, and is still conducted by descendants of the Meyer family.

VALENTINE MOYER

OF TULPEHOCKEN TWP., BERKS CO., PA.,
AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

BY REV. HENRY C. MOYER.

I. Valentine Moyer, Sr., d 1797. The first authentic statement concerning this man yet ascertained is in a record of baptisms of Host Church, Berks Co., Pa., as early as 1759. The next is his will, recorded in Book of Wills "B" page 473, in Reading, Pa. His name seems to appear among the taxables of Tulpehocken twp., Berks Co., Province of Pennsylvania in 1757. In this tax list his name is spelled Valentine Meier. However as far as can be learned the name has always been written Moyer by this family.

It is said that during the Revolutionary war he belonged to the provision train which transported produce from the fertile valley of the Tulpehocken to the camp at Valley Forge, and at another time was appointed to purchase horses for Gen. Washington's army.

Whether he was an original settler, or the son of an original settler is as yet an undetermined matter. There is a legend that two brothers came from Germany, that one settled in the Mohawk Valley and the other on the Tulpehocken. There is another statement that four (or six) brothers came from Oberhost Palatinate of the Rhine in an early day and settled at Tulpehocken. Since the subject of this sketch was early identified with "Host Church" we may look upon this last statement as quite probable.

The name, "Valentine Meyer" occurs in the list of foreigners imported in ship "Queen of Denmark" from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. Qualified Oct. 4, 1751. It is not known that he and the subject of this sketch are the same.

The first reliable information we have is in the record of baptisms in Host Church: "Maria Barbara Moyer, b Jan. 9, 1759, baptized Feb. 16, 1759, parents Valentine and Anna Margaret Moyer." He had a son Philip from a previous marriage.

Host Church is located in Berks Co., Pa., about five miles north of Womelsdorf. It was organized as early as 1750. A church building was erected in 1775, and repaired or rebuilt in 1885. As Valentine Moyer and family were identified with this church, it is probable that all that was mortal of him rests somewhere in the old section of the Host church cemetery, but his name is not to be seen on any of the grave marks.

Valentine Moyer, Sr., was married to Margaret Barbara —, maiden name unknown. It appears that she was about 20 years younger than her husband. When she died, or where she was buried, is not known.

Valentine Moyer, Sr., died in 1797. He made his will April 30, 1797. The will was proved Aug. 7, 1797. The will shows that he was the owner of two farms, one of 150 acres, which he sold to his son, John Nicholas Moyer, for £1430, and the other on Summer Hill, which was to be sold to pay present debts and balance put on interest for benefit of the widow.

The old "Moyer Homestead" is in what is now Jefferson Twp., Berks Co., Pa., about one mile east of the old Host church. It came into possession of John Nicholas Moyer in 1797. It remained in his possession until 1828, when he and wife deeded it to Philip Stein. Subsequent owners, Isaac Herben, Michael Stupp, Isaac Grove and Elias Grove.

The old house, still standing, has the appearance of more than a century of age; now used as a tool house. It is about 18 by 24 feet in size, and two stories high. Near the old building is a magnificent spring five feet square, with four feet depth of water, walled up with stones. From the spring issues a small stream, flowing to the south and east, which empties into the Tulpehocken.

II. Philip Moyer, b about 1737, d about 1811. He probably was born in Germany, and may have emigrated to America in his youth, with his father. He m Maria Catharine Unruh, dau. of Valentine Unruh. She was b May 24, 1741, d Dec. 26, 1815. About a mile N. E. of Womelsdorf it is said his father, Valentine Moyer, Sr., owned a large farm now owned by Dr. Livinggood, a part of which tradition says was given to Philip Moyer, who erected a brick house on it along the beautiful banks of the Tulpehocken Creek. Above the porch is a large white stone on which is inscribed Ph. M. & C. M., 1799. Tradition also says that when the carpenters had completed their work, the house was burned up, and had to be re-wooded. At the same time he built the house above mentioned he built a brick house on another farm of his, which was also burned. This too was re-wooded. He is said to have been a wealthy man, but by the time he had his burnt houses re-wooded he was about bankrupt. Philip Moyer was a private in Capt. George Miller's Co., Berks Co. Militia, on duty at South Amboy, N. J., Sept. 5, 1776, while the battle of Long Island was going on. Later this Company became a part of the German regiment which took active part in the battles of Trenton, Princeton, Germantown, etc. Philip Moyer was twice commissioned Lieutenant during the Revolutionary war. Farmer. Ger. Ref. His remains lie buried in the east end of the Wopelsdorf church grave yard, in an unmarked grave. DESCENDANTS OF VALENTINE, SON OF VALENTINE MOYER, SR.

II. Valentine Moyer, b in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa., Aug. 8, 1776, d at Red Bank Creek, Clarion Co., Pa., Jan. 8, 1825, m Mary, dau. of Christian Merkel. She was b May 1787, d Jan. 8, 1836.

He was for some years a farmer in Berks Co., Pa. In 1814 he removed to Columbia Co., Pa., and bought a 300 acre tract of land. In course of time he sold all all of this tract except 75 acres which he reserved for himself. The purchase and subsequent sales proved most unfortunate. There was a prior title vested in a Mr. G. of Phila. After years of expensive litigation, which greatly crippled him financially, he resolved to go West, and in the Spring of 1824 he, with his little family and personal belongings, in an emigrant wagon drawn by a yoke of oxen and a white horse, crossed the Allegheny mountains. After many a long day's journey he finally pitched his tent on Red Bank Creek, about ten miles S. W. of Brookville. He bought a tract of land and began the work of retrieving his losses. He was a farmer, stone mason, shoemaker, and worked so hard that he broke down and died during the first year. His widow and family in Mar, 1825, returned to Columbia Co., and by order of the court was granted a small piece of land formerly owned by her husband. Here she lived, supported by her older sons, until her marriage with a Mr. S. The avails of the Clarion Co. tract, together with what remained of the Columbia Co. tract, and the money accruing from the public sale of personal property, were all absorbed in legal "ways that are dark," and the widow and children never received a cent therefrom.

In personal appearance Valentine Moyer was five feet ten inches in height, weighted 180 pounds, black hair and heavy beard. He was a good singer, and was leader of the choir in the Reformed church, of which he was a member. His dying request to his wife was, that their children become members of the church. DESCENDANTS OF REV. PHILIP MAYER
SON OF GEORGE MAYER

III. Rev. Philip Mayer, b in Tulpehocken Twp., Berks Co., Pa., May 12, 1783, d near Orwigsburg, Pa., July 10, 1870, m Esther Dieffenbach, Apr. 23, 1809. She was b June 21, 1790, d Aug., 1849.

In his early youth Mr. Mayer received a call to the ministry, but he had not the means at hand where-with to prepare himself for the work. However, a way was providentially opened whereby he was enabled to pursue his studies for the sacred and responsible calling. He began his Theological studies at Baltimore under the care and tuition of Dr. C. L. Becker. In the spring of 1808, a request was sent to the Synod then in session at Germantown for a minister to labor in Schuylkill Co., Pa., and it was arranged for Mr. Mayer to go at the close of school term and preach to those people. He started on this grand preaching tour in high spirits, traveled hundreds of miles, and preached many times, after which he returned and resumed his studies. In May, 1809, a regular call from Pine Grove, Pa., was tendered Mr. Mayer, and he was accordingly licensèd, and ordained to the Holy ministry of the Reformed Church, by synod in session at Hagerstown.

He began his ministry at Pine Grove, Pa., June 24, 1809. During his long and eventful ministry he preached to the following congregations in Berks Co., Hains 3 years; Middleburg 2 years; Bellmans 20; Hamburg 25; Blue Mountain 3; and St. Michael's 43 years; and in Schuylkill Co., Schuylkill Haven 3 years; McKeansburg 3; Ringgold 28; St. Paul's 47; St. John's 47; and Zions, nearest his home, 48 years.

In 1857 Father Mayer resigned his congregations and ceased to perform the active duties of the ministry. When he began his labors in Schuylkill Co., that region of country was yet a wilderness, a rough and uncultivated region. Streams had to be forded at all seasons, as there were no bridges. In winter the ice had to be broken frequently, endangering his life in crossing. Wet, cold and shivering he often had to enter the church where there was neither stove nor fire. Sometimes he heard the screams of wild beasts prowling along his pathway seeking his life. These were trying times, and required brave hearts in the men who were to go about these wild districts preaching "the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven."

The labors of this aged father were very great, arduous, and abundant in good fruits. When he first came to Schuylkill Co., he had in some places scarcely enough male members to constitute a consistory where congregations were to be organized. When he closed his labors many of these places had grown into large and flourishing congregations. Father Mayer was blessed with a strong and vigorous constitution, and a stout heart, and above all, with a delight in his work which made the heaviest burdens easy to bear. The last 12 or 13 years of his life were spent in peaceful retirement, occasionally he would visit his former congregations and assist in administering the Holy communion, and most tenderly exhort the members to continue steadfast in the faith. During the war of 1812, he served as chaplain in the army.

After a brief illness Father Mayer peacefully closed his earthly career. A "Father in Israel" ended his labors and sorrows, and gently fell asleep in Jesus, after enduring many hardships and laboring long and faithfully in the vineyard of the Lord. A vast concourse of people followed his remains to Orwigsburg, where interment was made in the Reformed cemetery. C, William, Sabylla, Franklin, Daniel, Catharine, Diana, Lucian.

After attending public school he entered the preparatory department of Muhlenberg College, in Allentown, after which he went to Franklin and Marshall College, from which he graduated in 1858. In the autumn of the same year he entered the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, from which he graduated with the class of 1860. At the meeting of the Classis, in the spring of 1860, he was licensed to preach, and in August was ordained by St. Paul's Classis in Crawford Co., and installed in what was then the Clarksville charge, consisting of five congregations. In 1862, the charge was divided into two mission charges, he continuing to serve Hickory, Coalbank and Clarksville congregations. In 1864 the charge was again reconstructed because of the new congregations at Sharon, Pa., and near Hubbard, Ohio, and named Sharon charge, which he served until May, 1866. In October, 1866, he removed to Boyertown, Pa., and was installed pastor of the Swamp charge, in Montgomery Co., consisting of Swamp, Boyertown and Sassaman's congregations. Here he faithfully served for 21 years, during which time the Swamp church was practically rebuilt, the Lutheran interests in the church at Boyertown purchased, and a large beautiful new church erected. In Sept., 1887, he resigned, and removed to Saegertown, Pa., to live for a while in retirement, but as his old Sharon charge was vacant, he was induced to supply them with preaching. He accepted a call to the Reamstown charge, Lancaster Co., in June, 1891, where he hoped to end his professional services, but received a call very unexpectedly from Forreston, Illinois, which he accepted, and where he served nine years and resigned on account of failing health a few weeks before his death. In his pastorate of 43 years he was always faithful to his holy office and loyal to his church. He was a preacher of power, a wise counselor, and with an unusual largeness of heart, his presence was always a comforting influence. He baptized 1,560 infants, confirmed 953 adults, received 266 persons by certificate, officiated at 431 marriages, and 776 funerals, and raised for the benevolences of the churches $10,864.-57. JOHN MAYER, OF SPOKANE, WASH.

V. John Mayer,* b 1829, d 1900. He was b in Dauphin Co., and grew to manhood on his father's farm and received such schooling as the neighborhood afforded. He was married to Mary Ann, dau. of John and Lydia (Herb) Adams. The young couple lived on a farm at Lykens, Pa., until 1853, when they moved to Mt. Carroll, Ill. Here for three years he followed harnessmaking. In 1856 they moved on a tract of land adjoining the town of Forreston, Ill. On this farm and in the town they lived until 1883. Mr. Mayer lived the life of the average American pioneer, subduing the wilderness, helping develop the business and social affairs of the community.

They raised a family of nine children and by economy acquired a competency of this world's goods. Mr. Mayer was a public spirited man, who kept abreast of the times and took an active part in public affairs. The family affiliated with the Reformed church of Forreston, of which Mr. Mayer was an active and zealous member. The Mayer home, a large brick house, was the scene of many gatherings of notables of the church, In Oct., 1883, John Mayer and family moved to Spokane, Wash., and a second time became a pioneer. But now he was equipped with ample means to encounter the hardships of a new country. He again turned to agriculture and developed the famous "Mayer Ranch." With his faithful wife ever by his side he spent his declining years living in the midst of his children, happy in the consciousness of life's duty well done. In "The History of Spokane Co., Wash.," a work devoted to the pioneer days, is the following: "In Oct., 1883, John Mayer and family arrived in Spokane Co., and became an important factor in the development of the County. Mr. Mayer was engaged principally in farming, dividing his residence between Spokane and the farm. In 1894 he moved to the farm at Wayside, where he resided until his death. During the earlier years of his residence in Spokane Co. he took an active part in every movement for the welfare of the people. During 1891-2 he served as chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, rendering valuable service. Many of our public highways are monuments to the energy and judgment of this public spirited man. As a man and a citizen he was universally respected. Of sturdy Pennsylvania German stock, he stood always for right and justice. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity."

Since her husband's demise Mrs. Mayer has divided her time between the farm and Spokane. She found it hard to give up the farm where so many happy years have been spent, and in 1909 at the age of 75 she was still actively engaged in superintending the business of the farm.

VI. Charles P. Mayer,* b at Forreston, Ill. He attended the schools of his native town till his 13th year, when he accompanied his parents to Spokane, Wash., where he attended the public schools. In his 15th year he enrolled in the famous old Methodist College and attended this school for several years. He served an apprenticeship in the store of Sheeline Bros., one of the landmarks of Spokane before the great fire. Charles attended the State Normal School at Cheney and later the one at Ellensburg, spending five years in Normal School work and teaching. During 1899 and 1900 he served as deputy County Treasurer. The next four years were spent on the "Mayer Ranch" at Wayside, Spokane Co. In 1905 he re-entered the service of the county and at the present writing, 1909, is one of the official checkers for Spokane Co., under the direction of County Auditor R. W. Butler.

Mr. Mayer is a member of the Masonic Fraternity, the "Independent Order of Odd Fellows," and the Improved Order of Red Men, in which order he has risen to distinguished rank.

Abraham H. Mayer, Sr., Homestead, Palm, Pa.

ABRAHAM H. MAYER, OF PALM, MONTG.
CO., PA.

BY H. S. MOYER, OF ALLENTOWN, PA.

This branch of the Moyer Family has at various periods within the last century and a half, individually sanctioned four different forms of spelling the Family name, namely:—Mayer, Meier, Meyers, and the more general accepted form, Moyer.

The Great Great Grandfather took the first form Mayer, but as he did not draw a sharp distinction between the lines of the a and the o, it might be with equal propriety, Mayer or Moyer, just as one feels inclined at the time of reading the name. The Grandfather wrote his name Meier, its German form and means a farmer, according to that eminent linguist Henry A. Schuler. All of this branch in Eastern Pennsylvania spell it Moyer, with the exception of the descendants of Nathan Moyer, formerly of Philadelphia, now of Erie, Pa; they spell it Meyers. What form the sons of Jacob and John Mayer (sons of Abraham H. Mayer) of Georgia and North Carolina, respectively assumed is not known.

It is much to be regretted that the material which is necessary to write a history of Abraham H. Moyer, Sr., and his descendants, has either been lost, destroyed, or never been put in a tangible form, so that a true and interesting History could be given. What is known of him is very little, and that mostly traditional. His wife's name was Catharine. Dates of births, marriages, deaths are not obtainable earlier than that of Jacob Mayer, the Grandfather, and even date of his birth is in doubt. Of his only sister nothing is known except that she went to Heber-sham Co., Ga., presumably to her Uncle Jacob. The circular stone, at one time found in the gable end of the old homestead with the initials A. H. M. and the year 1754, proves quite conclusively who was the builder and proprietor of the same. Strange as it may seem the various tracts of land of the "Plantation" as he calls his various land holdings in his will, were acquired by patent or grants, also from Jacob Gery, and Baltzer Schultz, the descendants of whom have held the estate in whole or part for several generations. Some land was located in Northampton Co., now Lehigh Co., Pa., in all a little more than 475 acres of land mainly in the vicinity of Palm, Montgomery Co., Pa. It is a notable fact that all the sons of Abraham H. Moyer, Sr., moved to the southern States of Georgia and North Carolina in the early part of the 18th century and that all their descendants if any, are still there, with but a single exception of Jacob Moyer, (a Grandson of Abraham H. Mayer, Sr.) who came north at the age of 12 or 14 years. Jacob Moyer and his descendants are the only lineal descendants in the northern states. If there are any others, they are not known to the writer. Jacob Moyer had a sister older than himself, but she went to Georgia, after the death of her parents in North Carolina, while her brother Jacob Moyer, came to his Pennsylvania relatives. Both had been born in Pa., before their parents moved to North Carolina.

It is also quite likely that Abraham Moyer, Jr., also occupied the homestead for a limited time before he moved to North Carolina with his family, as did his three younger sisters with their families thereafter. What became of Abraham

Moyer, Jr., in North Carolina is not known, but traditions have it. "He was either killed or carried away by the Indians." It is known that during the life of grandfather Jacob Moyer, his southern relatives occasionally visited him, also that some came from South Carolina, but nothing is known that the northern relatives ever paid a return visit south, except as members of the Union Army. The children of Abraham H. Mayer, Sr., were John, of N. C.; Jacob of Ga.; Abraham of N. C.; Barbara, wife of Michael Roeder, of Md.; Elizabeth, wife of Jacob Kreter, of Lehigh Co., Pa.; Catharine, wife of Peter Kugler, of Palm, Pa.; and Mary, wife of Abraham Friet of Palm, Pa.

II. Abraham Mayer moved to N. C., children Jacob, and a sister.
